AUSTRALIAN NOVELS

1. Blood Song: First Book Of Llarmell (Rhiannon Hart) $18.95 $17.06

When her sister becomes betrothed to a prince in a northern nation, Zeraphina's only consolations are that her loyal animal companions are by her side - and that her burning hunger to travel north is finally being sated. Already her black hair and pale eyes mark her out as different, but now Zeraphina must be even more careful to keep her secret safe. Craving blood is not considered normal behaviour for anyone, let alone a princess. So when the king's advisor, Rodden, seems to know more about her condition than she does, Zeraphina is determined to find out more. Age 14+

2. Dead, Actually (Kaz Delaney) $17.99 $16.20

Willow's having a bad week. A dead body, a funeral and now she's being haunted by the star of it all, the dead queen of Ruth Throsby High herself, JoJo Grayson. Being dead hasn't made JoJo any nicer and she is determined to stick around unless Willow finds out what happened. But the mystery keeps multiplying. There's a missing phone. An anonymous blackmailer. Dirty secrets that won't stay buried. And the blame is being cleverly pointed right at Willow. Age 14+

3. Extraordinaires Book 1 - Extinction Gambit, The (Michael Pryor) $18.95 $17.06

Kingsley Ward is in dire trouble. Instead of thrilling the audience with his death-defying escapology, his first performance ends in disaster when his hidden wolfish nature bursts free. That same night, his father is abducted and his home ransacked. Bizarre plots. Sinister magic. The extraordinary is about to happen. Age 12+

4. Ink Bridge (Neil Grant) $17.99 $16.20

The Ink Bridge is the compelling story of two young men: Omed, an Afghani refugee who flees the Taliban and undertakes a perilous journey to seek asylum in Australia; and Hector, an Australian boy afflicted by grief, who has given up on school and retreated into silence. Their paths meet at a candle factory where they both find work. But secrets fester behind the monotonous routine: secrets with terrible consequences. Age 14+

5. Messenger Bird, The (Roseanne Hawke) $19.95 $17.96

Never before has Tamar felt so alone. Her older brother is dead, her mum's gone away and her dad's so wrapped up in restoring their ancient farmhouse he avoids talking about the things that really matter. When Tamar discovers an old handwritten sheet of music and allows herself to play piano again, she meets gifted violinist Nathaniel, a man from her house's past who may just hold the key to her future. Age 14+

6. One Long Thread (Belinda Jeffrey) $19.95 $17.96

To produce one long thread of silk, a weaver must never allow the silkworm to fully transform or ever emerge from the cocoon into the light. Ruby and Sally Moon are twins, cut from the same cloth but as different as night and day. While Sally is bold and adventurous, Ruby is quiet and creative. When divorce splits their family in two, and Sally moves with their mother to the Northern Territory, Ruby holds on to the thought that one day her family will be complete again. Age 14+

7. Outpost (Allan Baile) $16.95 $15.26

Dece and only three others live on the planet Ord, a very remote outpost in outer space. The environment is a hostile one, and the man Dece most admired, Saphare, has already died in an accident, a victim of one of the ice geysers that unpredictably surface on the planet from time to time. Now he is left alone with his bossy little sister, Seps, and two adults: the harshly critical Cap, and emotionally distant Boss. When Dece sees what appears to be the wreck of a spaceship caught in the orbit of the nearby gas planet, Cotal, he puts aside his terrors to investigate. Age 11+

8. Queen Kat, Carmel and St Jude Get a Life (Maureen McCarthy) $19.99 $18.00

Carmel, Jude and Katerina come from the same country town, but they couldn't be more different. Carmel is a talented musician, but awkward and painfully shy. Jude is a passionate idealist still coming to terms with the death of her revolutionary father. And Katerina, well, let's just say she's not called Queen Kat for nothing. So when they all move into the same inner-city house in their first university year, sparks are ready to fly. Re-Issue. Age 15+

15. Sea Hearts (Margo Lanagan)

$19.99 $18.00

On remote Rollrock Island, the sea-witch Misskaella knows how to draw a girl from the heart of a seal, how to lure the enchanting beauty out of the beast. And, for a price, any man might buy himself a sea-wife. He may have and hold and keep her. But from his first look into those wide, questioning, loving eyes, he will be just as transformed as she. He will be equally ensnared. And the witch will have her true payment. Age 15+

16. Send Simon Savage Book 2 - Return of the Black Death (Stephen Measday)

$16.95 $15.26

Simon Savage, the temponauts and the Time Bureau are on full alert. The Black Death has started to appear in major cities around the world. There are fears of a global pandemic. The plague has been carried to the present time by the fleas on rats from the fourteenth century. But who is behind this deadly scheme? It is up to the temponauts to find out. Meanwhile, Simon must find his family. Where have they gone? Will he be able to unravel the clues of their disappearance? And can he protect them from the Time Bureau itself? Age 11+

- 32. Best Day of My Life (Deborah Ellis) $15.99 $14.40
 Life in the coal town of Jharia, India, is the only life she knows. The only sight that fills her with terror is the monsters that live on the other side of the train tracks - the lepers. When Valli discovers that that her 'aunt' is a stranger who was paid money to take Valli off her own family's hands, she leaves Jharia and begins a series of adventures that takes her to Kolkata, the city of the gods. Valli finds that she really doesn't need much to live and is very resourceful. But a chance encounter with a doctor reveals that she has leprosy. Does this mean she too will become a monster? Age 11+
- 33. Chomp (Carl Hiaasen) $17.99 $16.20
 When Wahoo's Dad takes a job with a reality TV show called 'Expedition Survival', Wahoo figures he'll have to do a bit of wrangling himself to keep his dad from killing the show's inept star Derek Badger, who insists on using real wild animals for his stunts. And Wahoo's acquired a shadow named Tuna, a girl who's sporting a shiner courtesy of her old man and needs a place to hide out. They've only been on location in the Everglades for a day before Derek gets bitten by a bat and goes missing in a storm. Search parties promptly get lost themselves. And Tuna's dad shows up with a gun...Age 13+
- 34. Cold Hands, Warm Heart (Jill Wolfson) $16.95 $15.26
 Fourteen-year-old Amanda is a competitive gymnast, sleek-muscled and in perfect health. Fifteen-year-old Dani was born with her heart on the wrong side of her body; she's been in and out of hospital all her life. The two girls don't know each other - and never will. Yet their lives are about to collide. Amanda suffers a haematoma - a blood clot - during a gymnastics competition, and dies. The donation of her heart means renewed life for Dani and several other donor recipients. A fascinating and unputdownable story on an important and topical issue. Age 14+
- 35. Desert Angel (Charlie Price) $17.95 $16.16
 Angel is on the run. Her mother is dead; her body buried in a shallow grave by her latest boyfriend, Scotty, a ruthless, illegal hunter who is prone to violence and who now wants Angel dead before she can talk to the police. Angel has lived through more than a young girl should have but she's determined to stay alive. But in the scorching heat of the open desert, where can she hide? Age 15+
- 36. Distant Waves: A Novel Of The Titanic (Suzanne Weyn) $12.99 $11.70
 Daughters of a famed clairvoyant, the five Taylor sisters have moved to turn-of-the-twentieth-century Spirit Vale, where their mother makes a living talking to the dead. The future, however, is something even she cannot see clearly. The sisters are not meant to stay in Spirit Vale for long. All seem poised to move in different directions, science, society, fame, even the spirit world, but all of their destinies converge on board the Titanic. A transatlantic voyage that promises great wonders soon turns into a fight for survival that not everyone will win... or can they? Age 14+
- 37. Drink, Slay, Love (Sarah Beth Durst) $16.99 $15.30
 Pearl is a sixteen-year-old vampire...fond of blood, allergic to sunlight, and mostly evil. That is until one night she encounters a unicorn and he stabs her through the heart with his horn. Oops. Her family doesn't believe her (because obviously unicorns don't exist), but when Pearl reveals she can now withstand the sun, they are thrilled. She can be enrolled in high school, make friends and then lure these tasty snacks to her family! Age 14+
- 38. Erebos (Ursula Poznanski) $19.99 $18.00
 Nick is given a sinister but brilliant computer game called Erebos. The game is highly addictive but asks its players to carry out actions in the real world in order to keep playing online, actions which become more and more terrifyingly manipulative. As Nick loses friends and all sense of right and wrong in the real world, he gains power and advances further towards his online goal - to become one of the Inner Circle of Erebos. But what is virtual and what is reality? How far will Nick go to achieve his goal? And what does Erebos really want? Age 14+
- 39. Evernight #5 - Balthazar (Claudia Gray) $19.99 $18.00ea
 Haunted by memories from his first days as a vampire, Balthazar has spent hundreds of years alone—without allies, without love. When he emerges from his isolation to help Skye Tierney, a human girl who once attended Evernight Academy, Balthazar has no idea how dangerous it will be. One of the most beloved characters in Claudia Gray's Evernight series will captivate readers with his battle to overcome his past and follow his heart. Age 14+
- 40. Evernight #1 41. Stargazer #2 42. Hourglass #3 43. Afterlife #4
- 44. Fallen In Love (Kate Lauren) $22.95 $20.66
 Unexpected. Unrequited. Forbidden. Eternal. Everyone has their own love story. And in a twist of fate, four extraordinary love stories combine over the course of a romantic Valentine's Day in Medieval England. Miles and Shelby find love where they least expect it. Roland learns a painful lesson about finding-and losing love. Arianne pays the price for a love so fierce it burns. And for the first-and last-time, Daniel and Luce will spend a night together like none other. Age 15+
- 45. Fault in Our Stars, The (John Green) $19.95 $17.96
 Despite the tumour-shrinking medical miracle that has bought her a few years, Hazel has never been anything but terminal, her final chapter inscribed upon diagnosis. But when a gorgeous plot twist named Augustus Waters suddenly appears at Cancer Kid Support Group, Hazel's story is about to be completely rewritten. Insightful, bold, irreverent, and raw, The Fault in Our Stars is award-winning author John Green's most ambitious and heartbreaking work yet, brilliantly exploring the funny, thrilling, and tragic business of being alive and in love. Age 15+
- 46. Fracture (Megan Miranda) $15.99 $14.40
 By the time 17-year-old Delaney Maxwell is pulled out of the icy waters of a frozen lake, her heart has stopped beating. She is in a coma and officially dead. But Delaney pulls through. How? Doctors are mystified. Outwardly she has completely recovered. But Delaney knows something is very wrong. Pulled by sensations she can't control, Delaney finds herself drawn to the dying. Is her brain predicting death or causing it? Then Delaney meets Troy Varga, who lost his whole family in a car accident and emerged from a coma with the same powers as Delaney. At last she's found a kindred spirit who'll understand what she's going through. But Delaney soon discovers that Troy's motives aren't quite what she thought. Age 15+
- 47. Future of Us (Jay Asher) $16.99 $15.30
 It's 1996 and very few high school students have ever used the internet. Facebook will not be invented until several years in the future. Emma just got a computer and an America Online CD. She and her best friend Josh power it up and log on - and discover themselves on Facebook in 2011. Everybody wonders what they'll be like fifteen years in the future. Josh and Emma are about to find out. Age 15+

$16.99 $15.30

And you thought your teenage years were bad? Michael Swarbrick's life couldn't get any worse. He's embroiled in a girls' changing room scandal; his idiot brother, a self-proclaimed 'love-God', is snogging his dream girl and he's just come home early to discover his parents are having a cup of tea ... IN THE NUDE! A chain of events beyond Mike's control are set to RUIN HIS LIFE. But instead, his teachers think that he's having trouble 'dealing with his feelings'. And so begin Mike's 'Chats with Chas' which really are as cringe-worthy and miserably hilarious as they sound ... Age 14+

79. Someone Else's Life (Katie Dale)

$16.99 $15.30

When Rosie Kenning's mother, Trudie, dies from Huntingdon's disease, her whole world falls apart. Not only does Rosie desperately miss her mum, but now she has to face the fact that she could have inherited the fatal illness herself. Until she discovers that Trudie wasn't her biological mother at all ... Rosie is stunned. Can this be true? Is she grieving for a mother who wasn't even hers to lose? And if Trudie wasn't her mother, who is? But as Rosie delves into her past to discover who she really is, she is faced with a heart-breaking dilemma - to continue living a lie, or to reveal a truth that will shatter the lives of everyone around her... Age 14+

80. Spoiled! (Jessica Morgan)

$16.99 $15.30

Sixteen-year-old Molly Dix has just discovered that her biological father is Brick Berlin, world-famous movie star and red-carpet regular. Intrigued (and a little terrified) by her Hollywood lineage, Molly moves to Los Angeles and plunges headfirst into the deep end of Beverly Hills celebrity life. Just as Molly thinks her life couldn't get any stranger, she meets Brooke Berlin, her gorgeous, spoiled half sister, who welcomes Molly to La-La Land with a smothering dose of "sisterly love" ... but in this town, nothing is ever what it seems. Age 14+

81. Steampunk! An Anthology (Kelly Link)

$24.95 $22.46

Imagine an alternate universe where romance and technology reign. Where tinkerers and dreamers craft and re-craft a world of automatons, clockworks, calculating machines, and other marvels that never were. Where scientists and schoolgirls, fair folk and Romans, intergalactic bandits, utopian revolutionaries, and intrepid orphans solve crimes, escape from monstrous predicaments, consult oracles, and hover over volcanoes in steam-powered airships. Here, fourteen masters of speculative fiction, including two graphic storytellers, embrace the genre's established themes and refashion them in surprising ways and settings. Age 14+

82. Stolen Away (Alyxandra Harvey)

$15.99 $14.40

Eloise doesn't like to be the centre of attention but on the day of her seventeenth birthday, while she's hanging out with her friends, a handsome young man dressed like a pirate kneels down in front of her and vows to be her champion. Then later that night, the young man, Marcus, turns into a wolfhound to save her life. But Marcus doesn't save Eloise from being sent to Fae, a world in which a despotic ruler threatens both faery and human realms, and soon Eloise is involved in a bitter battle to save her aunt, herself and a society in danger... Age 14+

99. Weight of Water, The (Sarah Crossan)

$16.99 $15.30

Armed with a suitcase and an old laundry bag filled with clothes, Kasienka and her mother leave Poland and head for the UK to find her father. Life is lonely for Kasienka. At home her mother's heart is breaking and at school Kasienka finds it impossible to make new friends. While the search continues, Kasienka is kept afloat by William, a boy she meets at the local pool who understands what it means to lose someone and who swims with Kasienka towards her new life. The Weight of Water is a startlingly original piece of fiction; most simply a brilliant coming of age story, it also tackles head-on the alienation experienced by many young immigrants. Moving, unsentimental, and utterly page-turning, we meet and share the experiences of a remarkable girl who shows us how quiet courage prevails. Age 14+

100. What You Wish For (Compilation)

$16.95 $15.26

A stellar collection from Newbery medalists and bestselling authors written to benefit Darfuri refugees. With contributions from some of the best talent writing for children today, "What You Wish For" is a compelling collection of affecting, inspiring, creepy, and oft-times funny short stories and poems all linked by the universal power of a wish - the abstract things we all wish for - home, family, safety and love. Includes stories by Alexander McCall Smith, Cynthia Voigt, Cornelia Funke and John Green. Age 13+

101. Why We Broke Up (Daniel Handler)

$24.95 $22.46

Min Green and Ed Slaterton are breaking up. Min has written a letter explaining why. She's delivering it with a box that's full of the debris of their relationship: two bottle caps, a movie ticket, a folded note, Ed's protractor, some sugar they stole, a toy truck, a pair of ugly earrings and the rest of it. Each item is illustrated and accounted for; each memory played out until the heartbreaking end. Min will dump the box on Ed's porch - but it is Ed who is being dumped. This is the story of why they broke up. This carefully crafted YA title is illustrated in full colour, printed on high quality stock with a flapped paperback cover. Age 14+

102. Words In The Dust (Trent Reedy)

$16.95 $15.26

Zulaikha hopes. She hopes for peace, now that the Taliban have been driven out of Afghanistan. She hopes for a good relationship with her hard stepmother. And she hopes one day even to go to school, or to have her cleft lip fixed. Zulaikha knows that all will be provided for her, Inshallah - God willing. Then she meets Meena, who offers to teach her the Afghan poetry she taught her late mother. And the Americans come to the village, promising not just new opportunities, but surgery to fix Zulaikha's face. These could mean a whole new life - but can Zulaikha dare to hope they will come true? Age 14+

ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER HISTORIES AND CULTURES

(RRP) (SCHOOL)

103. Bye, Beautiful (Julia Lawrinson)

$19.95 $17.96

It is a time of change in Australian society - 'the swinging sixties' are about to challenge many of the social conventions documented in this story - feminism, black power, anti Vietnam demonstrations, the pill and mini-skirts are just over the horizon. Towards the end of the novel the Commonwealth Referendum of 1967 passes which ends constitutional discrimination against Aboriginal people who are since then counted in the national census. This adds to the poignancy of the story. Set in the wheatbelt area of Western Australia in the 1960s, this is a family and town drama that has as backdrop the radical societal changes that were taking place at the time in Australia and the rest of the world. Age 15+

104. Brown Skin Blue (Belinda Jeffrey)

$19.95 $17.96

Barry Mundy has brown skin and a blue birthmark and, at seventeen, those two colours define his life. When he gets a job at the Croc-Jumping cruises on the Adelaide River in the Northern Territory, he carries a list of names of the men who could be his father. They're all dark for different reasons and Barry hungers to know whose blood flows inside him. All he sees when he looks in the mirror is a brown mask that hides a blue secret. Brown Skin Blue is a compelling tale of a teenager searching for identity, love and family in the Top End. Age 15+

105. Deadly Unna (Phillip Gwynne)

$19.95 $17.96

Humour, reality, sorrow, memorable characters - this book has it all. An insightful story set in a small South Australian country town with all the prejudices and attitudes of a small community. A memorable book not to be missed by older readers with a strong language content. Age 14+

106. Maybe Tomorrow (Boori Monty Prior and Meme McDonald)

$24.99 $22.50

An anniversary edition of a powerful Australian story. "The other day this little one asked me, "When did you start being an Aborigine, and how old were you when you started that?" Like it was a career path or something. I just cracked up laughing.' Boori Monty Pryor's career path has taken him from the Aboriginal fringe camps of his birth to the catwalk, the basketball court, the DJ console, and now to performance and story-telling around the country. Age 16+

107. Nanberry: Black Brother White (Jackie French)

$16.99 $15.30

It's 1789, and as the new colony in Sydney Cove is established, Surgeon John White defies convention and adopts Nanberry, an Aboriginal boy, to raise as his son. Nanberry is clever and uses his unique gifts as an interpreter to bridge the two worlds he lives in. With his white brother, Andrew, he witnesses the struggles of the colonists to keep their precarious grip on a hostile wilderness. And yet he is haunted by the memories of the Cadigal warriors who will one day come to claim him as one of their own. Age 12+

108. Rabbit-Proof Fence (Doris Pilkington)

$19.95 $17.96

This is an extraordinary story of courage and faith. It is based on the actual experiences of three girls who fled from the repressive life of Moore River Native Settlement, following along the rabbit-proof fence back to their homelands. Assimilationist policy deemed these girls were taken from their kin and their land in order to be made white. Never having seen the ocean before, the three girls' experience of transportation by boat to the settlement was tormenting. But their torment was just beginning. They were not even allowed to speak their language. Of all the journeys made since white people set foot on Australian soil, the 1931 journey made by these girls born of Aboriginal mothers and white fathers speaks something to us all. Adult title

109. Riding The Black Cockatoo (John Danalis)

$18.99 $17.10

This is the compelling story of how the skull of an Aboriginal man, found on the banks of the Murray River over 40 years ago, came to be returned to his Wamba Wamba descendants. It is a story of awakening, atonement, forgiveness and friendship. 'It is as if a whole window into Indigenous culture has blown open, not just the window, but every door in the house,' says John Danalis. Part history, part detective story, part cultural discovery and emotional journey, this is a book for young and old, showing the transformative and healing power of true reconciliation. Age 14+

110. Playground: Listening To Stories From Country (Nadia Wheatley)

$39.99 $36.00

Alongside reminiscences of getting bush tucker, going fishing and taking part in ceremony, there are descriptions of playing games, building cubbies and having fun. The warmth of home, the love of family and the strength of community shine through every story. Freedom goes hand in hand with responsibility, while respect and sharing are constant themes. The eighty Elders - both past and present - who have contributed their words or artwork to this book include many prominent community leaders, educators and artists. Just as important are the contemporary stories told by twenty secondary school students. All ages

111. Stories From Country (Bob Randall)

$14.95 $13.46

In this wonderful collection of stories, Bob tells of many adventures - from crocodile hunting to mustering cattle on his pony Hooky. Other stories, including Theresa's story, Minjilung, are based on the history and culture of his people in the Red Centre and the far north of Australia. Age 11+

112. Swallow the Air (Tara June Winch)

$28.00 $25.20

When May's mother dies suddenly, she and her brother Billy are taken in by Auntie. However, their loss leaves them both searching for their place in a world that doesn't seem to want them. While Billy takes his own destructive path, May sets off to find her father and her Aboriginal identity. Her journey leads her from the Australian east coast to the far north, but it is the people she meets, not the destinations that teach her what it is to belong. In this startling debut, Tara June Winch uses a fresh voice and unforgettable imagery to share her vision of growing up on society's fringes. Swallow the Air is the story of living in a torn world and finding the thread to help sew it back together. Adult title

113. Chenxi and the Foreigner (Sally Rippin)

$19.95 $17.96

At eighteen, Anna is in limbo. She has decisions to make but stalls for time. Deferring her university studies in Australia, she visits her father in Shanghai. In an exotic environment, her life seems both better and worse: she loves learning Chinese painting but can't cope with being a foreigner, or with the chaos and heat of the city. Then the last thing she could have imagined happens: she falls in love with Chenxi, a young, mysterious fellow painter whose secret life in art and counter-revolutionary activities fascinates Anna. Their affair is passionate and fraught. Age 16+

114. Happiest Refugee (Anh Do)

$32.99 $29.70

Anh Do nearly didn't make it to Australia. His entire family came close to losing their lives on the sea as they escaped from war-torn Vietnam in an overcrowded boat. But nothing - not murderous pirates, nor the imminent threat of death by hunger, disease or dehydration as they drifted for days - could quench their desire to make a better life in a country where freedom existed. Life in Australia was hard, an endless succession of back-breaking work, crowded rooms, ruthless landlords and make-do everything. But there was a loving extended family, and always friends and play and something to laugh about for Anh, his brother Khoa and their sister Tram. Adult title

115. India Dark (Kirsty Murray)

$16.99 $15.30

Madras 1910: a troupe of child performers is stranded, having staged a strike against their manager. Their fate now depends on the outcome of a court case, and an alliance with gentlemen of the British Raj. Based on a true story, India Dark recreates shifting friendships and loyalties and the clash of innocence versus experience against the backdrop of India's seductive mysteries. Age 14+

116. Krakatoa Lighthouse (Allan Baillie)

$17.95 $16.16

The Javanese seaside fishing village of Anjer is warm and fragrant. A constant flow of traders and other visitors from all over the world keeps it prosperous and vibrant. So what could be better than being the twelve-year-old son of Anjer's Javanese lighthouse keeper? But the year is 1883, and the conical-shaped peak on the horizon that has started to rumble and give off smoke is Krakatoa - set to explode in the most dramatic way, generating the loudest sound ever historically reported. Allan Baillie has based his story on the real-life events of the 1883 eruption of Krakatoa, sticking closely to the facts and chronology. Age 11+

117. Little Paradise (Gabrielle Wang)

$19.95 $17.96

A dramatic, sweeping love story set during World War II in Melbourne and Shanghai, inspired by a true story. Mirabel, a seventeen-year-old Australian-born Chinese girl, falls in love with a handsome Chinese soldier stationed in Melbourne during World War II. When their affair is discovered, and JJ is posted back to China, Mirabel decides to follow him to Shanghai. But China is in the throes of civil war and the Communist army is advancing... Will Mirabel find JJ before it's too late? Age 15+

118. Mao's Last Dancer (Adult edition) (Li Cunxin)

$32.95 $29.66

In a small, desperately poor village in north-east China, a young peasant boy sits at his rickety old school desk, interested more in the birds outside than in Chairman Mao's Red Book and the grand words it contains. But that day, some strange men come to his school - Madame Mao's cultural delegates. They are looking for young peasants to mould into faithful guards of Chairman Mao's great vision for China. This is the true story of how that one moment in time, by the thinnest thread of a chance, changed the course of a small boy's life in ways that are beyond description. One day he would dance with some of the greatest ballet companies of the world. Adult title

119. Spare Room, The (Kathryn Lomer)

$19.95 $17.96

Akira is sent from Japan to Australia, into a world where everything seems new and strange. The language is full of unexpected pitfalls, everyday routines pose challenges, and something is not quite right with his homestay hosts, the Moffat family. But then, all is not quite right with Akira either. The Spare Room is a tale of living between two cultures and discovering that, no matter where you've come from, sometimes the journey is exactly the same. Age 14+

120. Unpolished Gem (Alice Pung)

$26.95 $24.26

This is an original take on a classic story - how a child of immigrants moves between two cultures. In place of piety and predictability, however, Unpolished Gem offers a vivid and ironic sense of both worlds. It combines the story of Pung's life growing up in suburban Footscray with the inherited stories of the women in her family - stories of madness, survival and heartbreak. Original and brave, this is a girl's own story that introduces an unforgettable voice and captures the experience of Asian immigrants to Australia. Age 16+

When Mayor Banks announces that the historic Turra Bend Middle School needs to be demolished; Luke and his friends decide something has to be done to stop it. But what can a film nut, two netball maniacs and someone whose mother feeds him tofu and bean sprout sandwiches do to stop someone with as much clout as Bill Banks? More than you'd think. Especially if they use the power of words. Age 14+

$16.95 $15.26

123. City of the Beasts (Isabel Allende)

Fifteen-year-old Alexander Cold has the chance to take the trip of a lifetime. With his mother in hospital, too ill to look after him, Alex is sent out to his grandmother, Kate. Kate is about to embark on an expedition to the dangerous, remote world of the Amazon rainforest, and rather than change her plans, she simply takes Alex along with her. They set off with their team - including a local guide and his daughter, Nadia, with her wild, curly hair and skin the colour of honey - in search of a fabled headhunting tribe and a legendary marauding creature known to locals only as "the Beast". What they find is much much more - about the mysteries of the jungle and its inhabitants. Age 12+

132. Remembering Green (Lesley Beake)

It is the year 2250. The ice has melted and sea levels have risen. Cape Town has disappeared and Table Mountain is now an island inhabited by the Tekkies, who cling to a lifestyle long gone in the rest of the world and keep their island for themselves. But their resources are running out. They look to the land that once was Africa - known as Out - where a few remaining people have managed to survive the massive drought by turning their back on 23rd-century technology and following a simple lifestyle based on ancient knowledge. They are the River People. Rain, a princess of the River People, is seized by the Tekkies. They want the knowledge of Rain's people. They want to know how to harvest the rain. Age 14+
