20. Days Like This (Alison Stewart)

$19.95 $17.96

Lily is a prisoner in her own home. Forced to stay inside by The Committee and guarded by their increasingly distant parents, Lily and her brother Daniel are beginning to ask why. Then, when Daniel disappears just before his seventeenth birthday, Lily knows she is next. She has to escape. But who else is out there? And can anyone survive days like this? Runner-up in the inaugural Amazon Breakthrough Novel Award. Age 14+

21. Hades (Alexandra Adornetto)

$24.99 $22.50

An angel, a mortal, and a demon out for deadly revenge ... the story by New York Times bestselling author Alexandra Adornetto continues. Jake Thorn has been banished underground and Xavier and Bethany settle down to resume a normal life. But, on the night of Halloween, a childish prank goes terribly wrong and Jake is accidentally summoned back to Venus Cove. Bethany is deceived and like the mythical Persephone she finds herself a prisoner in Jake's underworld, Hades. Whilst Gabriel, Ivy and a devastated Xavier are busy planning their rescue mission Jake offers Bethany a choice: if she succumbs to him for one night, he will let her return to earth. But can Bethany make the ultimate sacrifice? And what will happen to an angel in Hell? Age 13+

23. Have You Seen Ally Queen? (Deb Fitzpatrick)

$19.95 $17.96

Ally Queen, aged fifteen, is the new kid in a very small town. Uprooted from her comfortable city life and dumped in 'hicksville' she's trying to find her place amongst the bogans, the surfies and the spinach-munching hippies. Life is tough when your closest friend is miles away and deep and meaningful conversations are restricted to the length of a text message. And Ally needs a friend. Her Mum is suffering post-traumatic stress disorder and the quiet country life, which was meant to help things, just seems to make them worse. Age 15+

24. Invisible Hero (Elizabeth Fensham)

$19.95 $17.96

Philip has spent his whole life at school either being invisible or being called stupid. He's used to being the loner, the odd one out, the boy who lives with his Nan. So when Philip's class is given a school assignment to write about heroes and villains, the project causes conflict in the classroom as everyone weighs in on the debate. For the first time, Philip has the opportunity to shine in school but can he convince the class that being different is not necessarily a bad thing and that heroes have many disguises. Age 13+

25. Leviathan Trilogy Book 3 – Goliath (Scott Westerfeld)

$29.96 $26.96

Alek and Deryn are aboard the Leviathan when the ship is ordered to pick up an unusual passenger. This brilliant, maniacal inventor claims to have a weapon called Goliath. It can end the war. But whose side is the inventor really on? While on their top-secret mission, Alek finally discovers Deryn's deeply kept secret. Not only is Deryn a girl disguised as a boy ... she also has feelings for Alek. The crown, true love with a commoner, and the destruction of a great city all hang on Alek's next and final move. Age 14+

Terrified that the authorities will believe her uncle over her, she flees. She tricks her way into a new school and pretends to have a loving family. No one knows she sleeps in rail yards, sand dunes and abandoned houses. At school she meets the author she will call on years later. Together they piece together the story of how she survived, who helped her, and the friend she wishes she could have saved. Age 14+

53. Tales From The Tower Book 2—Wicked Wood, The (Isabelle Carmody)

$27.99 $25.20

Six much-loved writers - Catherine Bateson, Victor Kelleher, Cate Kennedy, Maureen McCarthy, Nan McNab and Kate Thompson - give fresh voice to age-old stories of abandonment, desire and entrapment. Praise for Volume One: 'The writers in The Wilful Eye imbue all of their characters, including the villains, with a deep sense of psychological realism, producing often tender, engaging, and insightful results. Unnamed soldiers and hideous beasts are given a voice, even if that voice is at times unsettling, and wolves are still wolves, however they disguise themselves. Age 16+

54. Wilful Eye, The #1 $27.99 $25.20

Mack loses control and makes a horrible mistake, and suddenly everything is impossible. Céce and Mack struggle, with both humour and compassion for each other, to answer the question: how do you survive when the person you love can't stay? Age 15+

218. Taken Away (Celine Kiernan)

~~$16.99~~ $15.30

"I think the fire changed us - me and Dom. Though I didn't feel much different at first, I think something inside of us opened up, or woke up. I think, all at once, we began to understand how easily things are broken and taken and lost. It was like walking through a door: on one side was the warm, cosy sitting room of our childhood; on the other, a burnt-out shell of ash and char. I think that's how the goblin boy was able to see us. Though he'd been there for every summer of our childhood - mine and Dom's - we'd only been stupid boys until then. Stupid, happy, ignorant boys. And what in hell would he have had in common with two stupid boys? But after the fire we were different. We were maybe a little bit like him. And so he saw us, at last, and he thought he'd found a home..." Age 14+
